

Reflection Sheet

*This sheet is to be used during the Summit to take notes, jot down thoughts and record highlights (Key points)

Reflection prompts for each segment of the Summit are included for your consideration

TOPIC	NOTES
Opening of Summit Eric Wada	*Key points: In thinking of my ancestors, the one point that resonated with me is . . .
Theme: Nankuru Naisa ushii chinin	*Key points: My understanding of this phrase . . . This understanding has changed / remained the same / unsure
Conference Keynote Dr. Patricia Neilson	*Key points: One thing from this keynote that I will share with my children/family/friends is
Panel One: Preserve and Pass On Collin Hoo, moderator	*Key points: - Terry Higa - Brandon Ufugusuku Ing One commitment I make to support my cultural heritage and practices is . . .
Panel Two: Protect Norman Kaneshiro, moderator	*Key points: - Moe and Kaiya Yonamine - ushii chinin - Claire Shimabukuro - Koutaro Yuuji Two things that affected me the most . . .
Making Connections Keith Nakaganeku	*Key points: Some connections that I made are . . .
Group Share Keith Nakaganeku, moderator	*Key points: The one thing that I would share is . . .
Summary / Closing Eric Wada	*Key points: Participation in this Summit has changed my . . . Lessons learned from my ancestors that have sustained me and will sustain me in meeting future challenges . . .